Unicomore A Thousand Splendid

Suns is the painful, and at times violent, yet ultimately hopeful story of two women's inner lives.

Hosseini's bewitching narrative captures the intimate details of life in a world where it's a struggle to survive, skillfully inserting this human story into the larger backdrop of recent history."--

Like The Kite Runner, A Thousand Splendid Suns focuses on Afghanistan, Hosseini's birthplace. Unlike The Kite Runner, however, this novel is focused on the lives of Afghan women. Hosseini returned to Afghanistan for the first time in almost thirty years just before writing this novel and was moved by the stories of the women he met there.

By telling the story of A Thousand Splendid Suns through the perspective of two Afghan women, Hosseini can emphasize certain aspects of Afghan life and history that differ from the established historical narrative. The novel, in fact, draws on the limitations imposed on women in Afghan life in order to explore how women have lived, endured, and subverted these constraints.
