Vocabulary is the cornerstone to learning a language, and becoming advanced in Spanish requires you to learn vocabulary and phrases that you won't find in your beginner's textbook! It's possible to get by in a language without any grammar (even if you sound like Tarzan!) but not without any vocabulary, which is probably why phrasebooks are a more common item to take on holiday than a grammar book!

Advanced Spanish certainly sounds daunting, though, doesn't it? It practically goes hand-in-hand with other dreaded class titles like Advanced Calculus, Advanced Fluid Dynamics and Advanced Nuclear Physics. It sometimes feels like anything paired with the word "advanced" requires hours upon hours of serious study.
