Reading the accounts of the saints who witnessed the Azusa Street revival demands a response from us. The stories in this book left me hungry for God to move mightily in our generation and has reminded me of what is 'normal' in the Kingdom of God - salvations, healing, baptisms in the Spirit, transformation and the manifested Glory of God - all happening with great frequency.

The Azusa Street Revival was a historic revival meeting that took place in Los Angeles, California. It was led by William J. Seymour, an African-American preacher. The start of the three-year revival began on April 9, 1906 and continued until roughly 1915. On the night of April 9, 1906, Seymour and seven men were waiting on God on Bonnie Brae Street, "when suddenly, as though hit by a bolt of Welchel, 63, said he heard many stories about the revival through these Azusa Saints. He chronicles those tales in his book, "Azusa Street: They Told Me Their Stories" (Dare 2 Dream Books, $12.95). that actually happened on a day-to-day basis in that humble little ex-stable -- his book is mostly about his Answer: The Azusa Street Revival was a Pentecostal gathering that occurred in Los Angeles, California, in April 1906. Most of today's Pentecostal denominations point to the Azusa Street Revival as the catalyst of the worldwide growth of the Charismatic movement, as they believe the Holy Spirit was once again poured out in a "new Pentecost."
