I love Charlaine Harris' books and have followed her since the Sookie Stackhouse collection. I opened "Sweet and Deadly" one morning during the Covid 19 quarantine and could not put it down until the end. I am a avid reader but I have never before been able to be so focused or entertained by a story. Brava, Ms. Harris.

Sweet and Deadly – Charlaine Harris
"Sweet & Deadly" is more along the lines of the Lily Bard series than any of Harris' other series. The book is dark, and the main character is jaded. The small, southern town makes for a wonderful backdrop, and, as in the Lily books, someone in this small town is hiding a big secret.
