Ecclesiastes 4:12b A cord of three strands is not quickly torn apart. The day of our wedding dawned beautiful and fair. I awoke as I had each morning for weeks, wondering if this was really happening to me. Linnie and I planned a very small ceremony with only our immediate families. Later, while traveling to our honeymoon destination, I said, "You know, we really have an enormous job ahead of us, making a home for my three and your five childre....I mean our eight children." "Having a few doubts?" Linnie smiled, as he squeezed my hand. "I think you know me better than that, Linnie, I responded. It's really going to be an adventure." I couldn't possibly realize as I settled back to enjoy our drive how tremendous the adventure would really be.

June and Maddie saw the faces of their loved ones reflected in the magic mirrors, but even that couldn't prepare them for the wild ride predicted by Love's Prophecy. Every girl was excited to take a look at the magic mirrors in Denton and Rolling Fork. Not all saw their true loves, but many claimed to see the reflection of the man they were meant to marry. Maddie and June were two of the lucky ones. Maddie knew the name of the man in her reflection, but caution led her to wait before pursuing their love. June caught a glimpse of her true love, but his identity was a mystery to her. Content to wait, the girls were surprised by the words of a street fair fortune teller. It was time to let their true loves know how they felt about them, before it was too late and someone stole them away. But can the girls claim their true loves before time runs out?

The Story of famed robber, Frank Lee Morris (My cousin). In this tale you will hear the story of a man trying to get out of "The Rock", "Hell-Catraz," by some, or just Alcatraz. What started as a short story turned into a few years long research project. A project in which I, myself learned things about my cousin. I hope every body loves the tale of Frank. Any comments can be sent to Frank Morris and Friends of Alcatraz on Facebook.
