Experience spiritual calm with the first adult coloring book to focus on the Rosary as you color and reflect on the traditional Catholic prayer. Renowned artist Daniel Mitsui provides exquisitely detailed illustrations of the Glorious, Joyful, and Sorrowful Mysteries, suitable for meditative coloring and for reflecting on the lives of Jesus and the Blessed Mother. Adult coloring books were the fastest-growing book category last year, making up five of the top ten bestselling books in 2015. But of the hundreds of coloring books on the market, very few reflect Catholic themes. Daniel Mitsui's The Mysteries of the Rosary is the first adult coloring book to focus on the Rosary and draw inspiration from medieval illustrated manuscripts. Just as repetition of the Hail Mary during the Rosary can create a contemplative awareness of its mysteries, careful attention to coloring these captivating illustrations can open your heart to a deeper awareness of the Rosary's truths. Like the medieval monks who understood their artistic decoration of the gospels as a form of prayer and praise, you'll find yourself caught up in meditative wonder as you prayerfully color Mitsui's images. The artist specializes in hand-drawn ink illustrations on paper or vellum. Since his conversion to Catholicism in 2004, most of his pieces have focused on religious subjects. Mitsui decided to publish selections of his fine art as a coloring book because he believes that traditional Catholic art has the power to shape the imagination and heart of everyone who experiences it. This unique coloring book contains thirty illustrations--fifteen full-page drawings of the mysteries of the Rosary, each one beautifully bordered by traditional images of animals and flowers; twelve vignettes featuring prophets, evangelists, and Fathers of the Church; and three larger drawings with the artist's commentary. It also contains descriptive copy written by the author for the three sets of Mysteries.

When Our Lady appeared to the 3 shepherd children at Fatima in 1917, she asked them to pray the Rosary to win many graces for themselves and others. The children had often hurried through the Rosary, saying only the words "Our Father" and "Hail Mary," instead of the whole prayer, but from now on they would pray the Rosary properly. When praying the Rosary, we should also meditate on or think about the events in each of the 15 Mysteries--the Joyful, the Sorrowful, and the Glorious Mysteries-which are events in the lives of Our Lord and His Mother Mary. In this book, the 15 Mysteries are pictured, and for each one a discussion among some Catholic people points out various details of the events, explaining what to meditate on and giving hints on how the Mysteries relate to our own life. Our Lady will help us pray the Rosary well. And if we do so, we shall win many graces, receive the gift of peace in the world, and obtain the salvation of many souls. In this way we will also bring great joy to the heart of our heavenly Mother.
