A Suspense Magazine BEST BOOK of 2020! When professional organizer Maggie McDonald finds a body in a snowdrift outside her friend's ski cabin, she must plow through the clues to find a cold-blooded killer . . . Lake Tahoe in February is beautiful, but Maggie can't see a thing as she drives through a blinding blizzard with her friend Tess Olmos and their dogs, golden retriever Belle and German shepherd Mozart. Maggie has offered her professional decluttering skills to help Tess tidy up her late husband's cabin in preparation to sell. She also plans to get in some skiing when her husband Max and their boys join them later in the week. What she doesn't plan on is finding a boot in a snowdrift attached to a corpse. The frozen stiff turns out to be Tess's neighbor, Dev Bailey, who disappeared two months ago. His widow Leslie expresses grief, but Maggie can't help but wonder if it's a snow job. As more suspects start to pile up, things go downhill fast, and Maggie must keep her cool to solve the murder before the killer takes a powder . . . ❄️A skillful amateur detective with an impressive to-do list.❄️ Kirkus Reviews, STARRED REVIEW, Address to Die For

A special Bob winter storybook, based on the feature-length video Snowed Under: the Bobblesberg Winter Games. This high-quality hardback, with jacket, will delight all Bob fans. Bob and the team have been asked to build a magnificent log cabin for the visiting dignitaries at the Bobblesberg Winter Games. Bob puts Scoop in charge. Things don't go quite to plan of course, but in the end, Scoop realises that he needs the help of the team.

Serge Bloch, the witty author and illustrator of Butterflies in My Stomach, Reach for the Stars and You Are What You Eat brings his readers a touch of Christmas joy. Everyone's a little snowed under preparing for the festive season: a storm is brewing and there's fear Santa might get stuck at the North Pole. But all it takes is a little decking the halls and trimming the tree to have everyone lighting up with joy. Bloch's humour and unique art, which combines photographs and charming line drawings, help make Christmas very merry, indeed.

Bob and his machines travel to Bobblesberg to build a cabin for important guests at the winter games. But when a snowstorm strands the other machines that are supposed to build the ice rink, ski runs, and courses for the games, it's Bob and his machines who save the day. Full color.

It's the countdown to the Bobblesberg Winter Games, and the team assigned to build the courses is snowed under. Bob and his crew have stepped in to get the job done, but time is running out! As the competitors train for the big event, Bob and the team race the clock to ramp up the ski jump, build a log cabin, and smooth over the ice rink. Will everything be finished before the opening ceremonies?

Snowed Under is an episodic novel composed of thirteen connected short stories. The action takes place in a small East Euroean ski resort called Harrachov, during the chaotic period following the fall of the Wall. Though the rapid process of Westernization has already begun making inroads into he sleepy town, traces of the defunct socialist regime cannot be erased from its residents' memories or their way of doing things: The postmaster continues to "inspect" letters even if the old secret service has long since been deposed; the barkeeper blackmails a West German investor so he can finance a trip around the world; Adina, the last teenager in the town, searches for a new identity over the internet.
