Sandi Lynn's books get me hooked from the first page, When I lie With You was no different. The writing was beautiful and flowed perfectly. My heart broke so many times reading it, I laughed, cried happy and sad tears. Ian was so frustrating at times, I wanted to throw my kindle across the room. In the end though I fell in love with him all over again.

Red can lie, and claim they saw Yellow kill Green. Of course, Yellow will know it's a lie, but the goal is simply to be convincing enough to the other crewmates. This can work well later in the game if the imposter has an alibi, and if Yellow was accused of acting "sus" (short for suspicious) before.
